ACT HIRES NEW REGIONAL ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Aaron Petrusch joins ACT's Sales Team

September 15, 2009: Account Control Technology, Inc. (ACT) is pleased to announce the addition of Aaron Petrusch to ACT's Sales Team. As Regional Account Executive, Mr. Petrusch will be utilizing his years of collections and sales experience to develop and maintain partnerships with the higher education institutions in the North-Central region.

Mr. Petrusch, a native German, immigrated to the U.S. in 2000 settling in Cincinnati, Ohio. The decision to stay was easy, given the many cultural and architectural aspects that remain from Cincinnati's predominately German heritage. In 2003 he followed good advice given to him by a Collection Manager, and started working as a collector of defaulted Stafford Loans for a third-party collections contractor. Eager to learn, he quickly developed a network of industry experts for gaining insight into the processes and policies regulating our industry.

In the position of Regional Account Executive for ACT, Mr. Petrusch will dedicate his efforts towards the enrichment of the ACT experience for current and future clients "Whether it is working with borrowers, or providing support to clients" Mr. Petrusch says, "we're always trying to accomplish the same goal: improving our clients' recoveries. We constantly aim to ensure a positive borrower experience, while providing best possible returns and customer service for our partners."

Mr. Petrusch comes to ACT with a vibrant attitude and is eager to get to know ACT's clients while building the ACT brand and presence. His knowledge and skills is an asset to ACT's Sales Team. "Aaron is a welcomed asset to the team and will represent his clients well", says Lynn Heineman, Vice President of Sales. "Joining ACT is a perfect opportunity to help build something great." In his spare time Aaron enjoys the outdoors and likes hiking, as well as golf
